FOREWORD

The statistics in this abstract of Canadian-British East Indian trade were specially compiled for the use of the Imperial Economic Conference, 1932. The abstract consists of two parts: The first part presents in rather complete detail Canada's trade with British India, Ceylon, and the Straits Settlements; while the second part sets out the trade of British India, Ceylon and British Malaya, also in rather complete detail, with the chief countries with which these British countries have exchange of commodities. According to the trade statistics of these British countries, Canada's share in their total imports in 1913 was only 0.03 per cent; in 1922 it was 0.44 per cent; while in 1930, eight years later, it had increased to 0.6 per cent. The British East Indian trade has increased so rapidly under normal conditions in recent years, and its possibilities for expansion in the future are so great as to merit careful study and consideration. British East Indian trade in 1913 was: Imports, $994,532,000 (British India $620,688,000, Ceylon $60,288,000, and British Malaya $313,556,000); and exports, $1,193,391,000 (British India $819,750,000, Ceylon $72,652,000, and British Malaya $300,989,000); whereas in 1930 the identical trade was: Imports, $1,143,225,000 (British India $631,782,000, Ceylon $110,279,000, and British Malaya $401,164,000); and exports $1,287,502,000 (British India $807,595,000, Ceylon $106,355,000, and British Malaya $373,552,000).

PART I.—TRADE OF CANADA WITH BRITISH INDIA, CEYLON AND STRAITS SETTLEMENTS

Table I presents the figures of Canada's trade, both import and export, with British India, Ceylon and the Straits Settlements, year by year, from 1912 to 1932, while side by side are given the corresponding figures for the United States. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1932, Canada's imports from the British East Indies amounted to $7,224,429, and exports to $3,442,746; while the United States imports from these same British countries amounted to $152,500,432, and exports to $42,741,637. The United States imports were a trifle over twenty times greater than Canada's imports from these British countries in 1930 compared with thirty times in 1928, while United States exports in 1930 were about thirteen times greater than those from Canada, compared with seven times in 1928. The Canadian import figures, however, do not represent the actual amount of products of British East Indian origin received. For instance, in 1932, large quantities of lac (valued at $203,722), and raw rubber (valued at $3,474,744) were imported from the United States, the lac being largely of British Indian, and the raw rubber of British Malaya origin, while on the other hand large quantities of tea (valued at $3,267,817) were imported from the United Kingdom, which had its origin in British India (value $2,277,617) and Ceylon (value $990,200). The imports into the United States from the British East Indies consist largely of raw rubber, tin and burlap, for the use of United States industries.

Table II sets forth the total trade of Canada with British India, Ceylon and the Straits Settlements, as well as the principal commodities imported from and exported to these British countries for the years 1914 (year prior to the war), 1922 (year following post-bellum boom), 1931 and 1932. From 1914 to 1932, the total trade of Canada with British India increased from $5,422,682 to $8,141,258 (imports from $5,006,309 to $5,099,736, and domestic exports from $416,373 to $3,041,522 (in 1929 imports from, amounted to $10,366,548, and exports to, $11,858,436); with Ceylon the total trade decreased from $1,686,331 to $1,633,099 (in 1929 the total trade was $3,086,659), the imports decreasing from $1,646,835 to $1,573,916 (in 1929 the imports totalled $2,529,140), while the domestic exports increased from $39,496 to $59,183 (in 1929 the exports to, amounted to $661,793); whereas during the same period the Dominion's total trade with the Straits Settlements increased from $796,298 to $890,849 (in 1929 the total trade was $2,642,107); imports from decreased from $565,843 to $550,777, while domestic exports increased from $230,455 to $340,072 (in 1929, however, imports were $2,015,207, and exports $1,203,909).

It will be noted further by reference to Table II that the principal imports into Canada from British India in 1932 were: Jute cloth ($2,376,615); tea ($2,063,083); rice ($240,488); spices ($83,860); wax ($65,643); mica ($41,712); raw coffee ($19,391); jute bags ($18,166); raw hides ($17,866); and brass ($9,813); while the chief exports to British India were: Silver bullion ($1,458,849); automobiles ($475,166); rubber manufactures ($257,335); aluminium ($185,349); automobile parts ($125,020); zinc ($102,549); artificial silk ($94,823); porcelain insulators ($54,694); pipes and tubing ($39,957); calcium carbide ($33,262); medicinal preparations ($29,739); fish ($23,105); and clocks and watches ($18,778). There has been a very serious decline in the exports of certain commodities to British India from 1929 to 1932, viz.: Automobiles, from $5,388,628 to $475,166; silver bullion from $2,210,500 to $1,458,849; rubber manufactures from $2,170,250 to $257,335; and wheat from $921,000 to nil.

During the same year (1932) the principal imports from Ceylon were: Tea, ($1,310,730); vegetable oil ($120,225); edible nuts ($54,969); raw cocoa ($36,297); crude rubber ($22,376); and spices ($20,306); while the chief domestic commodities exported were: Rubber manufactures ($42,002); clocks and watches ($5,466); fish ($1,918); and medicinal preparations ($1,806). From 1929 to 1932 the exports of automobiles to the Straits Settlements decreased from $454,150 to $800; and rubber manufactures from $156,778 to $44,002.

Canada's principal imports from the Straits Settlements in 1932 were: Canned pineapples ($409,780); spices ($56,953); crude rubber ($32,205); and tin in blocks ($28,681). There were some notable decreases in the imports from the Straits Settlements from 1929 to 1932, viz.: Raw rubber from $587,600 to $32,205; tin in blocks from $549,448 to $28,681; and spices from $305,925 to $56,953. The Dominion's principal exports to the Straits Settlements in 1932 were: Automobiles ($114,697); rubber manufactures, chiefly tires ($92,853); automobile parts ($60,980); milk condensed, etc. ($17,520); paper ($14,746); and fish ($6,634). From 1929 to 1932 there has been a serious decline in the exports to the Straits Settlements of certain commodities, viz.: Automobiles from $659,454 to $114,697, and rubber manufactures from $316,831 to $92,853.

The statistics in Table III give a more detailed survey of Canada's trade with British India, 1923 to 1932, detailing (1) imports from and (2) exports to; Table IV, similar information for Ceylon for the same years, distinguishing (1) imports from and (2) exports to; and Table V, the trade of the Dominion with the Straits Settlements, 1923 to 1932, segregating (1) imports from, and (2) exports to.

During the latest year for which statistics are compiled, viz.: 1931, Canada's imports from and exports to British India, Ceylon and the Straits Settlements, according to degree of manufacture, were:—

PART II.—TRADE OF BRITISH INDIA, CEYLON AND BRITISH MALAYA

In Part II of this abstract the imports and exports of British India, Ceylon and British Malaya are set forth in rather complete detail for the latest year for which statistics are available, as also the total imports and exports for the past ten years, showing in each instance the amount of the imports and exports for (a) All countries, (b) Empire and foreign countries, and (c) principal countries. The statistics in this part of the abstract present the extent of the import and export trade of these various units of the Empire, as also the classes of commodities imported and exported.

It will be observed by reference to the following table showing the "Trade of British India, Ceylon and British Malaya, year 1930 compared with 1921" that the total trade of these Empire countries with other Empire countries from 1921 to 1930 decreased from $1,231,900,180 to $994,271,318, imports from Empire countries decreasing from $810,598,361 to $504,265,299; and exports to increasing from $421,301,819 to $490,006,019. During the same period imports from Canada increased from $2,664,678 to $6,855,501 and exports to from $7,276,313 to $9,089,571; imports from the United Kingdom decreased from $605,991,110 to $325,764,074, and exports to increased from $223,625,020 to $284,444,908; whereas imports from the United States from 1921 to 1930 decreased from $90,938,151 to $72,573,020, and exports to increased from $154,693,290 to $220,962,306. The imports from all countries from 1921 to 1930 decreased from $1,274,567,594 to $1,143,224,504 and exports to increased from $1,074,690,348 to $1,287,501,908. Further it will be noted that in 1921 Canada furnished British India, Ceylon and British Malaya combined with 0·2 per cent of their imports, and in 1930 with 0·7 per cent; that the United Kingdom furnished these same British countries with 47·5 per cent of their total imports in 1921, and with 28·5 per cent in 1930; while the United States supplied these British countries with 7·1 per cent of their imports, and in 1930 with 6·3 per cent. With regard to export trade: In 1921, Canada took 0·7 per cent of the total exports, and in 1930, 0·7 per cent; the United Kingdom in 1921 took 20·8 per cent of the total exports, compared with 22·1 per cent in 1930, while in 1921 the United States took 14·4 per cent of their total exports, and in 1930, 17·2 per cent.
